

THE MOSSE/WEINSTEIN CENTER FOR JEWISH STUDIES PRESENTS

A WORLD WITHIN WORLDS

TSVEY BRIDER IN CONCERT

Join vocalist ANTHONY RUSSELL and multi-instrumentalist DMITRI GASKIN as they perform and unpack the sounds, idioms and histories behind the music they've created as the Yiddish songwriting duo, Tsvey Brider.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28
4:00PM

*Hamel Music Center,
Collins Recital Hall*

A diverse group of cultural influences are woven into the music that TSVEY BRIDER ("Two Brothers") has composed, arranged, and performed: Yiddish art and folksong, African American spirituals, field calls and work songs, wordless melodies from the Chassidic tradition, French chanson, and Ashkenazi Jewish cantorial music—just to name a few!

ANTHONY MORDECHAI TZVI RUSSELL is a vocalist, composer, and arranger specializing in Yiddish art and folk song.

DMITRI GASKIN is an accomplished accordionist, pianist, composer, and arranger specializing in klezmer and Romanian folk music.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Afro-American Studies, the Mayrent Institute for Yiddish Culture, the School of Music, and the Department of German, Nordic, and Slavic+

