The Mosse/Weinstein Center for Jewish Studies presents

THE 2023 KUTLER LECTURES
WITH
RIV-ELLEN PRELL
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

“University Students in the 1930s: Antisemitism and Racism on Midwestern Campuses”
Monday, November 6 at 4:00pm

“The Jewish Counterculture of the 1960s and 1970s: A Struggle to Democratize and Transform American Jewish Life”
Tuesday, November 7 at 4:00pm

Riv-Ellen Prell is Professor Emerita of American Studies at the University of Minnesota and a long-time faculty member of the Center for Jewish Studies and Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. Her books include Prayer and Community: The Havurah in American Judaism (which was awarded a National Jewish Book Award) and Fighting to Become Americans: Jews, Gender, and the Anxiety of Assimilation. She is the Curator of the 2017 exhibition, “A Campus Divided: Progressives, Anticommunists, Racism, and Antisemitism at the University of Minnesota 1930-1942,” and its website, acampusdivided.umn.edu.

NOV 6 & 7
4 PM | PYLE CENTER
702 LANGDON ST.
MADISON, WI

Zoom option available - for more information, visit cjs.wisc.edu/event/kutler2023

Co-sponsored by the Religious Studies Program, the Department of History, and the Rebecca M. Blank Center for Campus History