

The Mosse/Weinstein Center for Jewish Studies presents

THE STANLEY I. KUTLER LECTURES IN AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORY

WITH

WILLIAM I. BRUSTEIN

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

“Why Do You Think They Call It
the Oldest Hatred?

Antisemitism—Past & Present”

Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 4:00pm

“Phantom Enemies:
Antisemitism in the American
Heartland on the Eve of the Holocaust”

Thursday, November 13 at 4:00pm

William I. Brustein is Professor Emeritus at West Virginia University. Dr. Brustein is widely published in the areas of political extremism and ethnic/religious/racial prejudice, including his most recent book Anti-Semitism without Jews in Germany, France, and the U.S.: Phantom Enemies (Palgrave Macmillan, 2024)

NOV
12 & 13

MEMORIAL UNION

800 LANGDON ST. MADISON, WI

Zoom option available - for more information, visit cjs.wisc.edu/event/kutler2025

Co-sponsored by the George L. Mosse Program in History and the Department of History